

MATERNAL POSTPARTUM CHECKUP

For every 100 new Arkansas moms¹ in 2021, 87 had a maternal postpartum² checkup.

The percentage of new Arkansas moms with a maternal postpartum checkup decreased 2.8 percentage points between 2016 and 2021.³

UNINSURED STATUS

For every 100 new Arkansas moms in 2021, 10 had no insurance in the postpartum period.

The percentage of new Arkansas moms with no insurance in the postpartum period increased 3.4 percentage points between 2016 and 2021.

POSTPARTUM DEPRESSION

For every 100 new Arkansas moms¹ in 2021, 20 reported experiencing postpartum² depression.

The percentage of new Arkansas moms who reported experiencing postpartum depression increased less than 1 percentage point between 2016 and 2021.³

CIGARETTE USE

For every 100 new Arkansas moms in 2021, 12 smoked cigarettes in the postpartum period.

The percentage of new Arkansas moms who smoked cigarettes in the postpartum period decreased 7.8 percentage points between 2016 and 2021.

USE OF ANY POSTPARTUM CONTRACEPTION

For every 100 new Arkansas moms¹ in 2021, 77 reported using any form of contraception in the postpartum² period.

The percentage of new Arkansas moms who reported using any form of contraception in the postpartum period decreased 6.3 percentage points between 2016 and 2021.³

USE OF LONG-ACTING REVERSIBLE CONTRACEPTION

For every 100 new Arkansas moms in 2021, 16 reported using long-acting reversible contraception in the postpartum period.

The percentage of new Arkansas moms who used long-acting reversible contraception in the postpartum period increased less than 1 percentage point between 2016 and 2021.

Source: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Pregnancy Risk Assessment Monitoring System.

¹New moms include women who gave birth two to four months prior to survey administration.

²The time frame for the postpartum period is two to four months after delivery.

³Arkansas data unavailable for 2017.

⁴Arkansas rates compared to measure's best-performing state with comparable years of data.

100 ARKANSAS MOMS

Postpartum Risk Factors

APRIL
2024

For every 100 new Arkansas moms¹ in 2021, 80 reported ever breastfeeding in the postpartum² period.

EVER BREASTFED

The percentage of new Arkansas moms who reported ever breastfeeding in the postpartum period decreased 3.3 percentage points between 2016 and 2021.³

BREASTFEEDING AT 8 WEEKS

For every 100 new Arkansas moms in 2021, 56 reported breastfeeding at 8 weeks postpartum.

The percentage of new Arkansas moms who reported breastfeeding at 8 weeks postpartum remained stable between 2016 and 2021.

Source: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Pregnancy Risk Assessment Monitoring System.

¹New moms include women who gave birth two to four months prior to survey administration.

²The time frame for the postpartum period is two to four months after delivery.

³Arkansas data unavailable for 2017.

⁴Arkansas rates compared to measure's best-performing state with comparable years of data.